Final Paper Guidelines

- The final paper will be a research paper dealing with an area of interest related to refugee and/or IDP populations. If you're not sure about a topic, please check with the instructors.

- The paper must be referenced appropriately (using footnotes, endnotes, bibliography, etc.) that adhere to a consistent style (e.g., MLA or Chicago).

- The paper should be constructed according to the performance elements specified on the RHC final paper evaluation/assessment form.

- Papers should be 10-12 pages double-spaced, 12-point font if using Times Roman or a similar serif font, or 10-point font if using Arial or a similar sans-serif font.

- Papers should have a cover page with the following information: your assigned student number; title of paper; course number; and date. DO NOT PUT YOUR NAME ON THE PAPER.

- Pages should be numbered. The title page and references do not count toward the length of the paper.

- Papers that focus on guidelines or best practices will not be accepted.
